Upload Files
Please upload your files. For your initial submission, please upload a Single PDF File containing your manuscript and all figures. All other files are optional, including a Cover Letter.
Authors are required to include a data availability statement in their manuscript. For instructions and templates for including this statement, please see AIP Publishing's Research Data Policy.
If you are uploading multiple files, please use the Move tool to place the files in logical order for reviewers, e.g. Manuscript File first, followed by Figures in sequential order.
Please use the left menu to navigate the submission system while submitting your manuscript. Using your browser's back and forward buttons could delete information you have entered.

Open Access and Licensing Options

This journal offers the authors the option to select either conventional publishing or Open Access (Author Select) publishing for their manuscripts. The Author Select option has a USD 3500 fee and provides free online access to the published article to users indefinitely. With this option, authors hold the copyright to their work, which will be published under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International \(CC BY 4.0\) license.

Please select how you wish to publish your article from the options below:

Open Access and I will be responsible for paying the Author Select fee. (AIPP will provide a link for payment after manuscript acceptance.)

Open Access as part of an Institutional agreement. Our system has detected that your manuscript's affiliated institution has an agreement with AIP Publishing to support Open Access publication in this journal. If your article is accepted for publication while the agreement is active, your article will be published Open Access, and the fee for Open Access publication will be covered under the terms of the agreement. Learn about publishing through an institutional agreement.

Conventional Publication. I am not interested in the Author Select (Open Access) option and choose conventional publication.

Should your manuscript be accepted for publication, you will be contacted at acceptance with a confirmation of payment status as status may have changed.

Click the calculate button below to see an estimate of your APC based on the current characteristics of your article.

Estimated Total: Not yet calculated

Once validated, the system will recognize researchers affiliated with an institution holding a Read & Publish agreement.

When an article is accepted for publication, the system will check to verify the status of UKB's Read & Publish agreement.

After a manuscript is accepted and verified, the publication charges will be applied toward the agreement.

You will receive an invoice that shows that the APC has been paid for through the NREL Library Read & Publish agreement.

If the agreement has been exhausted or expired, you will be contacted with options for how to proceed with publication.
