- 8.3 Publisher guarantees that all intellectual property rights in Publisher's trade names, publication titles, brands and logos and in all of the Licensed Material are owned by or validly licensed to Publisher (hereafter jointly: the "Publisher IP") and that the use of any Publisher IP by SURF or the Institutions or the End-Users in accordance with this Agreement and the Licence Agreement does not violate or infringe upon any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, intellectual property right or other proprietary right or contract right of any third party. Publisher shall indemnify, defend and hold SURF and its affiliates harmless from and against any and all damages, liabilities, losses, claims, awards, penalties, injuries, causes of action, fees (including reasonable legal and professional fees), and/or any other costs that arise from, or in connection with, any third party claim, or threat of claim thereof, resulting from any failure of Publisher to comply with this guarantee, including all third-party claims, or threats of claims thereof, of an alleged violation or infringement of the above rights with respect to SURF's, the Institutions' and the End-Users' use of or access to Publisher's IP in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Licence Agreement. In that case, the terms of this Article 10 shall apply to such processing activities.
- 10.2 Publisher and the Institution will process End-User Data, and/or any other personal data processed within the context of this Licence Agreement, in accordance with the GDPR, the ePrivacy Directive (Directive 2002/58/EC) and any applicable national data protection laws. As independent data controllers, Publisher and the Institution understand and agree that each Party will comply, and will be responsible for its compliance, with the obligations applicable to it under said laws with respect to the processing of such personal data.
- 10.3 Publisher shall process the End-User Data during the Term only to the extent necessary to perform its obligations under this Licence Agreement. Publisher shall not use End-User Data for any other purpose unless with the prior written consent of the Institution and/or the relevant data-subjects, or if required under applicable law. Publisher shall always ensure that there is a lawful legal basis to process End-User Data as provided under Article 6 of the GDPR.
- 10.4 Publisher shall not transfer End-User Data to a country located outside the European Economic Area without the prior written consent of the Institution. If such consent is given, Publisher shall ensure that such transfer (and any onward transfer):
- i. is pursuant to a written contract including provisions relating to security and confidentiality of End-User Data providing adequate safeguards for the protection of personal data in accordance with the GDPR;
  - ii. is governed by such additional terms and conditions as the Institution may consent to at the relevant time; and
  - iii. otherwise complies with any applicable data protection laws.
- 10.5 Publisher shall provide full assistance, information and cooperation to the Institution with respect to any claim and/or exercise or purported exercise by data subjects of any of the rights granted to them under the GDPR. Publisher shall notify the Institution immediately if it is contacted or approached in relation to any claim and/or exercise or purported exercise of rights by a data subject under the GDPR.
- 10.6 Publisher shall ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks that are presented by the processing, in particular to protect End-User Data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, such personal data, in accordance with the GDPR. If so requested by the Institution, Publisher shall provide the Institution with an overview of the technical and organizational security measures implemented to protect End-User Data.
- 10.7 Publisher shall implement internal data breach procedures directed at detecting and acting on security incidents and data breaches, including measures to act upon recovery. Publisher shall notify the Institution regarding any (potential) security-related incidents and/or data breach possibly involving End-User Data without undue delay and, where possible, no later than 24 (twenty-four) hours after having become aware of it. Such notice shall contain at least the following information: (a) the nature of the data breach/security incident; (b) the details of a contact point from whom more information about the data breach/security incident can be obtained; (c) the recommended measures to reduce the negative consequences of the data breach/security incident; (d) the possible consequences/risks of the data breach/security incident for the privacy of the data subjects involved; and (e) the measures that Publisher has taken or proposes to take to remedy the data breach/security incident. The Institution agrees to provide reasonable assistance as is necessary to Publisher to facilitate the handling of any data breach in an expeditious and compliant manner.

- 10.8 Should Publisher engage a third party to perform its obligations under this Licence Agreement, Publisher shall ensure that any such third party is subject to written contractual obligations concerning the End-User Data (including obligations of confidentiality) which are no less onerous than those imposed by this Article 10. If so requested by the Institution, Publisher shall provide the Institution with an overview of the third parties engaged to process End-User Data under this Licence Agreement
- 10.9 If any authority requests Publisher to disclose any End-User Data, Publisher shall immediately notify the Institution of such request and collaborate with the Institution to defend against such request where possible, and, if it is concluded that Publisher is under a legal obligation to disclose End-User Data, to keep such disclosure to a minimum and take such other measures as can reasonably be expected to minimize privacy impact on the involved data-subjects.

Article 11 Guarantee

- 11.1 Publisher guarantees that it has full power and authority to enter into this Licence Agreement and to grant the Rights of Use and Rights to Publish to the Institutions pursuant to the terms of this Licence Agreement without infringing or violating any third-party rights.
- 11.2 The Institution guarantees that it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement.

Article 12 Liability

- 12.1 Publisher shall indemnify, defend and hold the Institution and its End-Users harmless from and against any and all damages, liabilities, losses, claims, awards, penalties, injuries, causes of action, fees (including reasonable legal and professional fees), and/or any other costs that arise from, or in connection with, (i) any third party claim, or threat of claim thereof, that the Institutions and/or End-Users' use of or access to the Licensed Material in accordance with the terms of this Licence Agreement violates or infringes upon the intellectual property rights or contract rights of that third party; and/or (ii) any third party claim, or threat of claim thereof, including enforcement measures of a competent authority, resulting from Publisher's breach of its obligations under Article 10 of this Licence Agreement. This indemnification shall survive the termination of this Licence Agreement. No limitation of liability set forth elsewhere in this Licence Agreement is applicable to this indemnification.
- 12.2 The Institution shall not be liable for any violation or infringement of the terms of this Licence Agreement by any End-User, provided that the Institution did not knowingly cause or assist the violation or infringement, or condone the continuation of the violation or infringement after becoming aware thereof.
- 12.3 Neither Party shall be liable to the other for:
- any special, indirect, incidental, punitive or consequential damages; or
  - loss of direct or indirect profits, business, contracts, revenue or anticipated savings; or
  - any increased costs or expenses.
- 12.4 Nothing in this Licence Agreement excludes or limits a Party's liability for:
- death or personal injury;
  - damages caused by gross negligence and/or wilful intent of a Party or that of its employees or agents in the course of their engagement; or

- its own fraud or that of its employees or agents in the course of their engagement.
- 12.5 Except for Articles 12.1 and 12.4 above, each Party's total aggregate liability to the other Party under or in connection with this Licence Agreement is limited to the amount of the paid annual Licence Fee (exclusive of VAT), for the most recent licence year.

Article 13 Termination or Dissolution

- 13.1 The Institution may terminate this Licence Agreement in writing per the end of the current Licence year without any obligation to pay damages, if, in the reasonable and motivated opinion of the Institution, sufficient funds are not provided or allotted in future government-approved budgets of the Institution (or reasonably available or expected to become available from other sources at the time the Institution's payment obligation attaches) to permit the Institution, in the exercise of its reasonable administrative discretion, to continue the Licence Agreement.
- 13.3 Either Party may - upon giving written notice to the other Party - terminate this Licence Agreement - with immediate effect, without judicial intervention and without any obligation to pay damages for such termination – under any of the following circumstances:
- a. the other Party commits a material breach of the Licence Agreement and that breach is irremediable or (if that breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within a period of 30 (thirty) calendar days after being notified in writing to do so;
  - b. if the other Party becomes insolvent or bankrupt or seeks or makes any assignment or other arrangement for the benefit of its creditors or suffers or takes any analogous action in any territory to whose jurisdiction it is subject, or if a request for bankruptcy is filed by or against the other Party, or if a receiver in the bankruptcy of such a Party is appointed;
  - c. the other Party ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or substantially the whole of its business;
  - d. the other Party is prevented or hindered from carrying out its obligations under the Licence Agreement as a result of any Force Majeure Event for any continuous period in excess of 60 (sixty) days.
- 13.4 Termination or expiration of this Licence Agreement – whether in whole or in part – shall be without prejudice to the rights of either Party - accrued prior to or after such termination or expiration - in respect of any default or breach or any other act or omission prior thereto and shall in no way affect the survival of any right, duty and/or obligation which is expressly stated in this Licence Agreement to survive termination or expiration of this Licence Agreement or which by its nature is intended to survive termination or expiration of this Licence Agreement.

A failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Licence Agreement or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 16.5 Should any provision of this Licence Agreement be or become invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law, in whole or in part, this shall not affect or impair the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining terms. The Parties shall in such an event be
